

NEW INITIATIVE...
ADATH ISRAEL EXPERIENTIAL SHABBAT
SATURDAY, JANUARY 28, 2012
9:30 A.M. TO 1:30 P.M.

The purpose of our Religious School training here at Adath Israel is to encourage active participation in Jewish life. As a new initiative to encourage both learning and participation, we are offering an Experiential Shabbat for students and their families. In class, students will be preparing to lead parts of the service either individually, in groups, and/or with family members. It is our hope that this experiential Shabbat will become a regular component of the school calendar.

We hope and encourage you to plan to be with us on Saturday morning, January 28, 2012 from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Here are the highlights of our first Experiential Shabbat.

9:30 a.m. Food for the Body...Continental Breakfast and Food for the Soul...Short study session for students of all ages and their parents with Rabbi Grossman drawing on the teachings of our Sages: Pirkei Avot

Students and families will lead various sections of the service and chanting the Torah and Haftarah

Interactive D'var Torah that will be appropriate for all ages

Special Recognition of our dedicated teachers

Presentation of the prestigious title Conservative Jewish Educator in recognition of advanced professional accomplishments to Hedda S. Morton, our Director of Congregational Learning

Shabbat lunch including stories and zemirot (Shabbat songs)

1:30 p.m.: L'hitraot and Shabbat Shalom!
